MESSAGE OF DR. KRAUSKOPF

TO

ANNUAL SPRING EXERCISES

Sunday, June 3, 1923

(Written ten days before Dr. Krauskopf's death and is his last piece of literary work)

I am saddened that I cannot be with you for the exercises today, but I send you my affectionate regards and greetings. How happy I would have been could I have journeyed with you out to the Farm School, as I was wont to do in former years, to converse along the way with old acquaintances, and to meet and greet new friends. These public gatherings of the friends and supporters of the Farm School were milestones in its history, and always marked a stride forward, in that, seeing the Farm School face to face at these occasions, the people realized with all the more appreciation, the blessed work that lay before their eyes, and its deservedness to merit their support. I shall live through every part of the program as if I were actually present with you. Whatever appertains to the Farm School is dear to me.

It is my love for it that is responsible for my being now deprived of the pleasure of joining in this occasion. I had come to the Farm School at the end of March after convalescing from a very severe illness. While on the grounds, the fire that destroyed Pioneer Hall took place, and it was hard for me to stand by and to have to see the first building that I had seen erected at the School thus completely razed. There was about it for me a sentiment and feeling that nothing could replace. It was our first building. I had traveled the length and breadth of the country, lecturing, to raise the money to put it up, and added to the money thus collected my own meagre savings. At that time, Pioneer Hall provided all the young institution's needs. There throbbed the Farm School's very life, and within its modest confines were dreamed the dreams of the future, and out from it went inspiration for expansion and growth. Ever fondly as it was thus held by me, to see it burned down affected me more than my state of convalescence could stand, and this, coupled with a heavy cold which I contracted at the time, brought on a severe attack of illness, which is responsible for my absence today.

I am grateful that I am so far improved that I can at least express my appreciation for the splendid bequest of $75,000 recently given the School from the Estate of Rosetta M. Ulman, of Williamsport, Pa., through the kind aid of Mr. Abraham Erlanger, of New York, Executor, of which you will probably hear more during the course of the exercises. This money is to be applied to the fund for the erection of the new Dormitory Building to replace Pioneer Hall, which building is to become known as the "Rosetta M. Ulman Memorial Dormitory."

Considering that the cost of building construction is more than three times in excess of what it was when Pioneer Hall was put up, you can realize the amount of money necessary to erect and equip a modern, fire-proof building of the size required to house our ever-increasing student body. I am cheered that my many friends are coming forward so nobly and, by their financial assistance, are helping to share the burden of raising the funds which are necessary immediately for entering upon the construction of this building, which must be ready for occupancy before the cold weather sets in, the boys at present being housed in out-of-the-way corners, wherever it is possible to place a bed.

To the honored Vice-President, Mr. Harry B. Hirsh, who, despite the great demands upon him by his own work and the great sorrow he sustained in the loss of his life companion, has taken the helm and guided the destinies of the School with a firm hand and a keen vision; to Mr. Herbert D. Allman, who has assumed the Directorship of the One Million Dollar Jubilee Fund Campaign and the Chairmanship of the Building Committee and given loyally and unstintingly of his time to the cause; and to the other members of the Board, who have taken such a deep interest in looking to the affairs of the Farm School, and relieving my anxiety as to its welfare, are extended by earnest thanks.

My heartiest thanks I also extend to our Guests of Honor, who have responded to my invitation and have come to give their endorsement and service to this deserving institution, that is and has been from the first non-sectarian in its character, open and entirely free to all from all parts of the country, who qualify for admission, and to whom it gives in a three-year course, a thorough training in practical and scientific agriculture, and whose graduates are giving an excellent account of themselves. My regret is that I cannot personally serve as host and take them over our 900 acres of land which we are cultivating, and that I cannot express to them my pleasure at meeting with them. Perhaps that satisfaction may be vouchsafed me in the future.

My heartiest greetings I also extend to my friends throughout the country who have planted trees in memory of their departed dear ones, and to those who have planted festive trees in commemoration of joyous occasions. At this time we are especially remembering our distinguished departed friends: John Wanamaker, one of the most useful and prominent citizens of our City; my dear personal friend, Dr. Emil G. Hirsch, who occupied one of the foremost Jewish pulpits in our land; Judge Mayer Sulzberger, an eminent and distinguished jurist; Harris Weinstock, a leading citizen of the State of California, who gave the first hundred dollars towards founding the Library at the Farm School. We are also taking this means of honoring Nathan Straus, my personal friend for over twenty-five years, one of the earliest believers in and supporters of The National Farm School; the Rev. Dr. Russell Conwell, a co-worker and neighbor for the past thirty years; Rev. Dr. Kaufman Kohler, the distinguished scholar and successor of my own teacher, Rabbi Isaac M. Wise, as President of the Hebrew Union College.

My thoughts are with all the other visitors, my good friends through the years, who have stood faithfully by me and rallied to my appeals for the School. I have the happy consciousness of the remembrance of their kindness, which will always be sweet, and in the hope of gaining additional friends and supporters of the Farm School I am further encouraged.

May this prove to be one of the most successful days in the history of the Farm School. May the institution grow from strength to strength, and may the lives of the students we have under our care be the best compensation for all our efforts and sacrifices. I look forward, with pleasurable anticipation, to meeting you on these grounds when we shall gather here for our Succoth Harvest Festival in the Fall.

Resolutions on the Death of
DR. JOSEPH KRAUSKOPF
Passed by the Board of The National Farm School at Its Meeting June 20, 1923

On the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, the Founder and President of The National Farm School, was translated from life to life, from life temporal to life eternal. The National Farm School was the creation of the vision and mind and effort of the Rev. Dr. Joseph Krauskopf. To it he gave a maximum of his devotion; for it he had a maximum of affection: it was the child of his innermost conviction, and the object of his tireless energy and never-ending service since the day of the School's inception to the day of its Founder's death.

The Board of Trustees of The National Farm School mourn the death of their President and leader, and they do hereby RESOLVE, that the work of the Founder shall not have been in vain, and that to the best of their ability, individually and collectively, this institution shall be perpetuated, its existence made secure, its further growth and development assured, that it may henceforth become the monument and memorial to Joseph Krauskopf, dreamer of dreams realized, priest and prophet of the living God, faithful servant of mankind.

IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED, that this minute be suitably engrossed and presented to Mrs. Joseph Krauskopf, that it be published in the daily press of Philadelphia, in the Jewish Exponent, the Year Book of The National Farm School and the Gleaner.

MESSAGE OF THE ACTING PRESIDENT
HARRY B. HIRSH
TO THE 26th ANNUAL HARVEST PILGRAMAGE

Paris, September 21, 1923.

To the old and new friends of the Farm School—to the men and women associated with us in its work—Greetings:

Each October for these many years you have journeyed to the Farm School in joy and pleasant anticipation; here to listen to a stirring message; here to be inspired anew with faith and courage; here to celebrate the gathering in of the harvest. This year you gather for the Harvest Festival in profound sorrow. The light that led us has been extinguished. The eloquent tongue of Joseph Krauskopf is silenced forever. His magnetic presence, his life and talents, so lavishly devoted to the School, have been taken from us.

The spirit and memory of Joseph Krauskopf, however, remain. They bid us to be of good cheer and courage. Harkening to that spirit, revering that memory, we dedicate ourselves to carry on his work.

Our Director, Dr. Ostrolenk, will report to you the results of the work done in the field in cultivating the largest acreage in our history. He will tell you of the educational and social life of the student body and you will be gratified to learn that the practical and theoretical work of our boys has been the best in the history of the School. Our grateful thanks and appreciation are due to him and to every member of the faculty and staff for their devotion and efficient work.

Our Campaign Director, Mr. Herbert Allman, will tell you of the friends and supporters the School has found during the year; of the disastrous fire that swept away Pioneer Hall in April and of the magnificent bequest that came to us providentially and immediately thereafter through Abraham Erlanger of New York City, as Executor of the Estate of Miss Rosetta M. Ulman of Williamsport. Her present and prospective gifts, totaling $75,000, make possible the building of a new fire-proof dormitory to house 100 students. We hope to dedicate this new Rosetta M. Ulman Memorial Hall next June. Mr. Allman will also tell you of the generosity of Messrs. Schiff and Warburg, and hundreds of others, and of the certainty that, as a memorial to Dr. Krauskopf, the Million Dollar Fund will be completed.

Our Treasurer, Mr. Isaac H. Silverman, will submit a report of the receipts, expenditures and financial condition of the institution. This is always a matter of extreme interest and anxiety on the part of our supporters, critics and social service experts. For in the careful review and analysis of our expenditures, the slide-rule of per capita cost per student per year is generally used, and to this is added a large percentage to cover the cost of educating those who discontinue agricultural work after leaving the School.

From the figures so obtained, it is but a short step to the conclusion that an investment of over $2,000 per boy for a period of three years is one not warranting further expansion or support. We thus hear that the proposition is economically unsound and that Joseph Krauskopf built up an institution and system of education doomed to eventual failure.

Our critics argue that it is not enough that 70 to 80 per cent. of the high type American boys we send out each year, at a cost of only $1,000 to $1,500 per student over the three-year period succeed as farmers. It is, however, entirely in order to call attention to the fact that the other 30 per cent. have met with conspicuous success in other professions and industries as the result of their training here. Our balance sheet thus shows 100 per cent. of the best American citizenship. Would not Harvard, Yale and our other American colleges be proud, could they produce an equal quality of citizenship, and as high a percentage of successful lawyers, doctors and engineers, at many times the expenditure?

This, however, is only half our story. When Joseph Krauskopf, nearly 30 years ago, planned and built the School, it was largely as a means of escape for the poor of the city slums from their poverty and suffering. He had a vision of a new generation, otherwise submerged and foredoomed to the vices and diseases of the crowded cities, living in the open, in a new environment of health, happiness and hope. But with prophetic foresight and uncanny wisdom, he must also have sensed the problems facing the whole United States today, and the part the American Jew might play, through this School, in solving them.

The first and most obvious feature of this contribution is the impetus the School has given and is now giving to the farming industry. For the past four or five years there has been an avalanche of discussion about the sad plight of the farmer. The farmer himself, whether rich or poor, and his son encouraged by his father, have quit. The boy now has a white-collar job with shorter hours and less fatiguing work. Meanwhile, what is happening to farming? Every industry must have an infusion of new blood each year or decay. Until recently that came to farming through immigration, but a new statute has cut off that supply. Where will farming now obtain it? Our School has blazed a path that leads men and boys from the city to the farm.

Second. It has been a beacon light to the boy of the overcrowded city with its handicaps, poverty and diseases, illuminating the values of country life; its peace, happiness, health and independence.

Third. Our public schools send forth into the world each year a horde of boys equipped only for clerical work or for living by their wits. The Farm School has demonstrated the value of a new system of education which gives to every boy training in handicraft and the manual trades.

Fourth. A serious situation faces the entire building, metal, textile and other industries in the dearth of skilled workmen. How to recruit the ranks has become a national problem. The Farm School is a pioneer in mass or community apprenticeship on the job. Experts have declared this can be the only successful system to adopt in industry.

Fifth. With national safety and progress dependent upon the primary need of producing food and shelter in ever more bountiful quantities, the Farm School immediately and directly serves the Nation by training boys for one of these primary pursuits.

Sixth. As an Americanization movement, the School is entitled to take a front place with other methods for strengthening patriotism. Bringing city boys, many of them of alien birth, into contact with American soil and American ideals, it creates within them that love of country, of the flag and of American institutions which is synonymous with the best citizenship.

In many directions, and in unknown places, seed has been scattered which is bringing forth blessed fruit. Even to far off India and Palestine the School has recently given valuable help.

We have then, an institution whose work and whose influence cannot be weighed by standards used to appraise other philanthropies or social service agencies, because it is impossible to place our moneys in one pan of the balance, and the intangible products of the School in the other.

In that remarkable document published last June as "The Last Will and Testament of Joseph Krauskopf," he bequeathed to the American Jews and non-Jews all his equity, right, title and interest in and to this School, time and devotion which, expressed in moneys, would have provided an enormous fortune for his children. The School, then, belongs to the Nation, and upon it, and especially upon the American Jews, rests the obligation to conserve, continue and expand his work. It is a precious legacy, of inestimable present value, of unbounded future possibilities.

To be associated with its administration is a high honor; to support it now and to participate in its future, must appeal to the heart of every broad-minded man and woman of the United States. We give you our heartfelt thanks for your past benefactions and work, and make this plea for your continued interest and support.

HARRY B. HIRSH,
Acting President.

TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL GRADUATION

February 22, 1923

The Twenty-second Annual Graduation was held in Segal Hall on the grounds of The National Farm School on Washington's Birthday, February 22, 1923.

The exercises were opened with an invocation by Rev. Wm. Boswell, Professor of English at the School.

Mr. Harry B. Hirsh, Vice-President of the School, presided. In his opening remarks Mr. Hirsh read a telegram of greeting from Dr. Jos. Krauskopf, Founder and President of the School, who was prevented from attending the exercises because of serious illness.

He then called attention to the work the School is doing in training boys for agricultural careers, and the endorsements which it has received from such eminent men as President Warren G. Harding; Secretary of the Navy, Edwin Denby; Secretary of War, John W. Weeks; Secretary of Commerce, Herbert C. Hoover; Secretary of Agriculture, Henry G. Wallace; Postmaster-

General, Hubert Work; Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Theodore Roosevelt; Luther Burbank, one of America's foremost naturalists, and scores of others. Mr. Hirsh called attention to the nation-wide Silver Jubilee Fund being raised for the School as a testimonial to Dr. Krauskopf, the fund to be used to enable the School to expand to meet the growing needs of the institution.

Mr. Hirsh then introduced Mr. Frank P. Willetts, Secretary of Agriculture of Pennsylvania, who delivered the commencement address. Another speaker was Dr. Oliver P. Cornman, Associate Superintendent of Public Schools, of Philadelphia.

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL SPRING EXERCISES

Dedication of Memorial and Festive Trees

Sunday, June 3, 1923

The consecration and dedication of the John Wanamaker Memorial Grove, the Russell H. Conwell Festive Grove, the Nathan Straus Vineyard, and a large number of individual trees in honor of living and in memory of departed friends of the School, were the features of the Annual Spring Exercises held at The National Farm School on Sunday, June 3, 1923.

Although the absence from these exercises of both the Founder of the School, Dr. Jos. Krauskopf, and the Vice-President, Mr. Harry B. Hirsh, the former because of illness, and the latter by a death in his family, was keenly felt by those who attended, yet interest in the proceedings and appreciation of the expansion of the work were enthusiastically manifested throughout the exercises on the part of the large audience.

The weather was what has come to be known as "Krauskopf weather." Summer skies smiled on the broad acres of the School and on the large gathering of visitors, which included a special delegation of friends from Newark, N. J., who came to the School by special train chartered for the occasion.

The exercises were opened with an invocation by Rabbi Abraham J. Feldman, devoted mainly to a prayer for the restoration of Dr. Krauskopf to health.

Mr. Jos. H. Hagedorn, of Philadelphia, representing the Board of Trustees, then introduced Judge James Gay Gordon, of Philadelphia, as the presiding officer of the day.

Judge Gordon, in a brief address, praised the work of Dr. Krauskopf in having succeeded in creating this School, stating that it was more than a philanthropy, that it was an act of statesmanship, and that the founder of the School had been impelled not only by benevolence, but by practical thought that here was a way to open a new field for many in the exercise of their intellect and wisdom.

Following the reading of a message from Dr. Krauskopf (printed in full on pp. 5 to 7 of this book), Judge Gordon introduced Governor Edward C. Stokes, of New Jersey, who stated that the boys who are being trained along agricultural lines are being "trained to speak in deeds rather than in empty words." He commended the work done by Jewish farmers in the State of New Jersey, and said that the fact that they had been able to make an unfertile soil productive, is proof that Jews are able to become good farmers.

Mr. Jacob Billikopf, Executive Director of the Federation of Jewish Charities of Philadelphia, was the next speaker, who in an eloquent address dedicated the Nathan Straus Vineyard. Mr. Billikopf urged his listeners to dedicate themselves to furthering and fostering the ideals of which Mr. Nathan Straus is a true exponent.

Congressman Geo. A. Welsh then spoke briefly, saying in part that the Jew has been ordained to step into the breach at the very time when the city's dependence on the country is becoming alarmingly acute, and that the sending of trained farmers into different parts of the country will help materially in solving a difficult problem.

Mr. Bartley J. Doyle, President of the Poor Richard Club, of Philadelphia, the next speaker, said, "I am entirely out of sympathy with the 'grist-mill' idea of education, making all boys, regardless of their individual talents, temperaments and disposition, take the same subjects in school, and then passing or flunking them at the end of a specified time. I, therefore, am a great advocate of the system of vocational training as exemplified by this Farm School."

Dr. Edward N. Calisch, President of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, delivered a tribute to Dr. Kaufmann Kohler, dedicating a festive tree planted in honor of Dr. Kohler's eightieth birthday. He also paid tribute to the late Dr. Emil G. Hirsch, of Chicago, consecrating a Memorial Tree to the memory of Dr. Hirsch.

Mr. Ernest T. Trigg, of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, paid a tribute to Dr. Russell H. Conwell, dedicating the grove planted in honor of Dr. Conwell's eightieth birthday.

Mr. Joseph H. Hagedorn, delivering the Jubilee Year address, reviewed the work that had so far been done toward the raising of the $1,000,000 Testimonial Fund as a tribute to Dr. Krauskopf's work in behalf of the School for over twenty-five years. He made a plea that the friends of the School put their shoulder to the wheel so that the desired goal would be reached before the end of the year. He referred to several large gifts recently received, ranging in amounts from $10,000 to $75,000, notably the one of the latter amount from the Estate of Rosetta M. Ulman, of Williamsport, Pa.

After a recess for luncheon the programme was resumed, with the consecration of the John Wanamaker Memorial Grove, planted by Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Blum, of Philadelphia. The address of consecration was delivered by Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. In his address, Dr. Finegan laid stress on agriculture as one of the "ancient and honorable" occupations. "All through the history of this country we have been an agricultural people . . . The importance of agricultural schools and colleges, of farm bureaus and experiment stations cannot be overestimated in their relation to the development of farming along scientific lines." He paid a glowing tribute to the life and achievements of the late John Wanamaker, "whose life was one devoted to the service of humanity."

Philip Sterling, Esq., member of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania and member of the Board of Trustees of the School, paid tribute to Angelo Myers and Henry Bronner, of Philadelphia, and Harris Weinstock, of San Francisco, late members of the Board of the School, and Mr. Jacob Gimbel, late President of the Federation of Jewish Charities, of Philadelphia.

Beautiful tributes were paid to Mrs. Harry B. Hirsh and Mrs. Isaac H. Silverman, late members of the Ladies' Auxiliary Board of the School, by Mrs. Morris Jastrow, Jr., and Mrs. Bernard Kohn, respectively.

A tribute was also paid to the late Judge Mayer Sulzberger, of Philadelphia.

Festive and memorial trees planted on the School grounds during the year in the name of living and deceased friends of the School were then impressively consecrated. (The list of names for whom trees were planted is given in full on pp. 17 to 19 of this book.)

Prizes to the students for effort and merit were awarded. The exercises closed with the reciting of the Kaddish and the pronouncing of a benediction by Rabbi Feldman.

Resolutions on the Death of
ANGELO MYERS
Passed at the Meeting of the Board of The National Farm School, February 14, 1923

A true man's life is an abiding benediction to the community in which he lived, loved and labored. Such has been the life of

ANGELO MYERS.

We recognized this fact, in a measure at least, while he was still amongst us, but now that his spirit has left the flesh, we see more clearly and appreciate more fully his helpful and faithful services. A lover of mankind, a devotee of the great outdoors, modest and guileless, he strove through his brief lifetime to be helpful to all, and faithful to that which to him seemed true, guiding his life by the rule that there are " . . . tongues in trees, books in the running brooks, sermons in stones, and good in everything."

WHEREAS, the late Angelo Myers has identified himself during his short life with many charitable affairs in the City of Philadelphia; and

WHEREAS, among the different charitable organizations which have reason to feel grateful to his memory for the good he has done, was The National Farm School, of which he had become a useful and honored member of the Board of Trustees; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees of The National Farm School feels deeply the loss which has come to it by reason of his untimely call, be it

RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees extend its sympathy and have its condolence spread on the minutes as expressive of its deep bereavement through the loss of so honored a character and so sincere a worker in its cause, and be it Further resolved, that this resolution be published in the Year Book of The National Farm School, in the Jewish Exponent, in the Gleaner, and that a copy be sent to his bereaved family.

Resolutions on the Death of

HENRY BRONNER

Passed by the Board of The National Farm School at Its Meeting April 11, 1923

WHEREAS, God in His inscrutable wisdom called unto Himself the soul of HENRY BRONNER; and

WHEREAS, Henry Bronner has for many years been an honored member of the Executive Board of The National Farm School; and

WHEREAS, during the years of his service he proved himself to be unselfish in his devotion to the interests of The National Farm School, wise in counsel, and faithful in his duty as one of the Trustees of the institution; be it therefore

RESOLVED, that the Executive Board of The National Farm School express to his bereaved family its sincere condolence and sympathy, and its sense of bereavement in the untimely death of a loyal and selfless comrade in the work; and be it further

RESOLVED, that this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the Executive Board, that it be published in the Jewish Exponent, and that an engrossed copy be sent to the family of our late friend.

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL HARVEST PILGRIMAGE

Sunday, October 7, 1923

The Twenty-sixth Annual Harvest Pilgrimage held on the School grounds, on Sunday, October 7, 1923, was the first public function of the School since the passing away of the Founder of the School, Dr. Joseph Krauskopf, and was in the nature of a memorial service to him.

It was one of the largest assemblages that ever participated in these Annual Harvest Pilgrimages, and testified to the esteem in which the memory and work of Dr. Krauskopf are held.

The exercises were opened with a prayer by Rabbi Mortimer J. Cohen, of Philadelphia. They were presided over by Mr. Louis Nusbaum, Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements, who read a message from the Acting President, Mr. Harry B. Hirsh, printed in full on pp. 9 to 12 of this book. Mr. Nusbaum then introduced Dr. Nathan Krass, Rabbi of Temple Emanuel, New York.

Dr. Krass eloquently traced his association with Dr. Krauskopf and the Farm School, speaking of Dr. Krauskopf as "A great leader, teacher, builder and organizer." The keynote of his address was "I have builded me a monument more lasting than bronze." "The Farm School," said he, "will remain a monument to the noblest and ablest Rabbi the Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati ever produced. The things he did were not ethereal, but were concrete, constructive and practical. Doctrines fell from the lips of that great man like seed into fertile soil. . Dr. Krauskopf left behind him, not only a visible bequest, but also a request that the institution which he conceived shall not perish, but grow stronger and more powerful with the passing years."

Rev. Dr. Frank P. Parkin, Secretary of the American Bible Society, in an impressive and inspirational address paid tribute to Dr. Krauskopf. Dr. Parkin emphasized the fact that he and Dr. Krauskopf were life-long friends, working side by side for many years in all movements looking toward civic betterment.

Dr. Edward Sherwood Mead, Professor of Finance and Economy at the University of Pennsylvania, in his address called attention to the record of The National Farm School in producing 90 bushels of corn to an acre, against the ordinary record for the vicinity of 45 bushels, and 8,000 pounds of milk per cow, against 4,500 pounds produced under non-scientific conditions. He said in part:

"The demoralized state of the farming industry can be charged up against lack of training and inability to apply scientific knowledge by those who have never had the advantage of a training at an institution like The National Farm School.

"We can get along without the League of Nations, with any kind of a tariff, and can even struggle through a coal strike, but we cannot get along without food."

Dr. Jacob G. Lipman, Director of the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station, and Dean of Rutgers College, in a very illuminating address, traced the history of agricultural education in this country. He credited its real impetus to President Lincoln's Land Grant in 1864, the proceeds from which were to be used for the support of State Colleges teaching agriculture and mechanic arts. "The attitude of the farmers formerly was to look upon schooling of that kind as unnecessary," he said, "believing that the farm itself is the best school. As against the alarmist attitude of some in the face of the dwindling of the rural population, Dr. Lipman held that the average farmer today is more efficient and can produce more than formerly. "There is no such thing," he stated, "as an over-agricultural or an over-industrial development. But co-operation is necessary among farmers, without which the American farm will go."

Dr. Cheeseman A. Herrick, President of Girard College, the next speaker, stressed the importance of the fact that the Farm School is an "all-American" institution. As the personal friend of Dr. Krauskopf for 29 years, he added his meed of praise to the achievements of the Founder of the School, and cited a number of instances illustrating the interest taken by Dr. Krauskopf in improving the condition of his fellow-man.

Mr. Herbert D. Allman, Director of the Campaign for the raising of the Jos. Krauskopf Memorial Fund of $1,000,000 (originally launched as the Silver Jubilee Fund), and to be devoted to the enlargement of the scope and work of the School, presented his report of the work accomplished to date. (Published in full on pp. 28 and 29 of this book.)

At the close of the exercises members of the Board of Trustees for the ensuing year were elected. Following this prizes were distributed to the students, and the exercises were concluded with prayer.

REPRINT OF AN EDITORIAL IN THE "PUBLIC LEDGER" PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER 9, 1923

"Monuments like The National Farm School at Doylestown are better than stones set upright in a cemetery or sculptured tablets placed in a wall. Rabbi Krauskopf's eloquence and influence have continuing life in the school he founded, and the memorial he would prefer is that of human life inspired and ennobled because of his altruism.

"For the first time the master builder was absent from the annual meeting of the institution he created, but the thousands present have taken the torch from the hand of the leader fallen, and will carry it forward in his spirit for the good of generations yet to be."

Resolutions on the Death of

IDA HIRSH SILVERMAN

Passed by the Board of The National Farm School at Its Meeting March 14, 1923

The Board of Directors of The National Farm School is grieved and saddened by the news of the passing away of

IDA HIRSH SILVERMAN.

Mrs. Silverman was a woman of rare charm of personality and beauty of soul. Devoted and beloved as wife, inspiring and idolized as mother, God-fearing and faithful, she was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. Interested in all that concerned her community, she was, as a member of the Ladies' Board of The National Farm School, deeply interested in the welfare of its students, showing thereby that maternal concern for them which was one of her finest characteristics.

She was truly a mother in Israel, one who well deserved the tribute of Scripture:

> "Strength and dignity are her clothing;
> She openeth her mouth with wisdom;
> And the law of kindness is on her tongue."

Be it therefore resolved that this minute suitably engrossed be sent to the bereaved family.

Resolutions on the Death of

MINNIE R. HIRSH

Passed by the Board of The National Farm School at Its Meeting April 11, 1923

WHEREAS, word has reached the members of the Executive Board of The National Farm School of the untimely death on April 3, 1923, of the beloved wife of the honored Vice-President of the institution, Mr. Harry B. Hirsh; and

WHEREAS, the said Minnie R. Hirsh has for many years been a valuable member of the Ladies' Board of The National Farm School, to whose counsels she brought the great native endowments of sagacity, clear judgment, a sympathetic understanding of the purpose of the School and a deep concern for the cultural and spiritual welfare and development of the students of The National Farm School—endowments which in their combination are rare; be it therefore

RESOLVED, that the Executive Board of The National Farm School express its sense of great loss in Mrs. Hirsh's demise, and that this sense of loss, together with an expression of the Board's deep sympathy with the bereaved family, be spread upon the minutes, be published in the Jewish Exponent, and an engrossed copy be sent to the family of the lamented Mrs. Hirsh.

REPORT OF THE CAMPAIGN AND BUILDING COMMITTEES, MADE AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OCTOBER 7, 1923

Herbert D. Allman, Chairman

As Director of the Campaign to raise One Million Dollars for The National Farm School, it is my pleasure to report progress on same. How I wish that Dr. Krauskopf were with us today to hear the splendid report that I am privileged to make. Only late yesterday we received a letter from Mr. Mortimer L. Schiff and Mr. Felix M. Warburg, which I feel you will be interested in having me read:

> "Dear Mr. Allman:—In response to your letter of October 3, I send herewith check for $50,000, one-half from Mr. Mortimer L. Schiff and one-half from myself, in payment of our joint pledge to The National Farm School Building and Endowment Fund.
> "Congratulating you on your success in raising this fund, believe me,
>
> "Yours very truly,
> (Signed) FELIX M. WARBURG."

When you take into consideration that the majority of the pledges we have received are on the five-year plan, and when I tell you that we have at this time over $300,000 in cash already paid in, and with our contemplated drive in New York City this fall, I think you will have no hesitancy in prophesying with me that our One Million Dollar Fund is in sight. The consummation of the endeavor, however, is not the task for just a few men. Every one of our friends must shoulder his or her responsibility by giving us substantial aid and hearty co-operation.

We have in memory of our departed leader renamed this fund The Joseph Krauskopf Memorial Fund, and the friends of the doctor have a sacred duty now to translate his dream and devoted service of over a quarter of a century into the kind of a reality that will make this Farm School one of the best agricultural schools in the country.

As Chairman of the Building Committee, I am happy to state in behalf of your Committee, that we have let the contract for the new Dormitory Building. Within six months, we hope you will see the actual building almost finished, and I assure you that every effort has been made by us to make this dormitory the last word in fire-proof construction that will give a comfortable home to 100 students. I am showing you a rough sketch of the elevation of this building (reprint is published in this book), for which we are practically breaking ground today.

The erection of this building has been made possible by the generosity of the late Rosetta M. Ulman, of Williamsport, for whom the dormitory will be named, thus perpetuating this good woman's memory, through the judgment and decision of Abraham Erlanger, of New York City, executor of her estate. The total of her gift will eventually reach the sum of $75,000.

We have a number of other important improvements under consideration, one of which is the Joseph Krauskopf Memorial Library. This building, it is planned, will not only house the present School Library and Dr. Krauskopf's personal, beautiful and valuable library, which he gave to the School, but will serve, in addition, as a forum or place of gathering where farmers, grangers and students of all kinds will be welcome. We, the fellow-workers of Dr. Krauskopf in this cause, knowing the great possibilities of the School, how he devoted his life to its upbuilding, desire to show a tithe of our love and appreciation by the erection of this building on the School grounds, and hope that his many loyal friends and admirers will rally round us, and favor this project with their support, as an indication of their love of the man, as well as of their interest in The National Farm School.

I feel proud to predict that The National Farm School will continue to go from achievement to achievement, and what was originally a vision in our departed leader's mind is to become an actuality tomorrow.

The list of subscribers to the Million Dollar Fund is not yet complete. The entire list will be published at the close of the campaign. In the meantime, we desire again to express our grateful thanks to all of our good friends, who have already generously subscribed to this fund.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

Bernhard Ostrolenk, Ph. D.

In the summer of 1923 your Board requested me to make an occupational survey of the former students and graduates of The National Farm School. It has been my experience in several previous surveys that when our graduates and former students were confronted with elaborate questionnaires the response, while detailed in particular, was sparse. A lamentably large number would not reply. With this in mind a simple sheet was prepared, merely inquiring for the address, brief past career and present occupation of the recipient.

The next step was to secure addresses. The Farm School graduates, especially the more recent graduates, are exceedingly mobile. Any list of addresses rapidly becomes antiquated. It became apparent that there were not sufficient addresses of former students (non-graduates) available to make a study of that group at all representative. Correspondence with them was meagre, there being no ties or interest to bind them to the School; hence addresses of such non-graduates were too few to justify any study of them at this time. I, therefore, decided to concentrate all my attention for this study on the graduates of the School. Even here it was difficult to secure the information of the whereabouts of our graduates; especially of the older ones who have lost touch with the School.

The number of students admitted to the School from the day of its inception up until today is 952. This includes every student whether he stayed a day, a month, a year, or was graduated. Of these 952 students, 78 are today at the School as undergraduates. In other words, 874 students have passed through the School and of these, 330 or 37 per cent., were graduated in 23 classes. This percentage compares favorably with the number of students entering and graduating from high schools and colleges. The Commissioner of Education gave the figure for the former as 22 per cent. and the latter 34 per cent.

It should be noted from Table 1 appended, that in the first ten years we graduated a total of 70 students or an average of 7 per class, the next ten years we graduated 169 or an average of 17 per class, and the last three years we graduated 91 students or an average of 30 per class. The larger number of graduates of the School are those of the recent years. There are not many of the older graduates, and information about them is meagre. The largest majority of The National Farm School Alumni are still very young men with their careers before them.

I was able to get in touch with only 178 of our 331 graduates. This is only a little more than half the total number of graduates. One hundred and thirty-one of this number are graduates of the last eight classes, and 47 are graduates of the classes prior to 1916. I feel that while this number gives a workable basis for the study of our graduates, every effort should be made to continue contact with many more graduates, especially the older classes. I am not sure that I know how this can be done. I believe that if the Board would empower the printing of an annual alumni directory, that such a directory would be an incentive for the alumni to keep the School up to date with information about themselves. It would also act as an annual occupational survey. The directory could also be used to build up a body of information about the former students of The National Farm School, many of whom have received as great benefits from the training here as its graduates and whose careers must reflect the influence of their contact with the School.

When examining the figures of those in agriculture, it should be borne in mind that occupation in agriculture meant:

(1) Present occupation, no cognizance was taken of past career. A graduate who for several years was in agriculture but at the time of receiving the questionnaire was engaged in a non-agricultural occupation, was classified according to his present occupation. In many instances, graduates specifically wrote that they had accepted city positions for the winter for various reasons or that their present employment in the city is temporary until they can relocate themselves on farms, or that they are working to save money to buy a farm or get an agricultural college education. In each of these cases, however, the graduates were classed as non-agricultural.

(2) An inclusion of all occupations dealing with food production, landscape and florist work, and agricultural education, research and extension work.

Of the 178 graduates replying to the questionnaire 129 were found to be in agriculture. This is 73 per cent. of those replying. Assuming that all graduates with whom we are not in contact are not in agriculture, then the School has 39 per cent. of its graduates in agriculture. With every graduate who is newly found to be in agriculture, this percentage is bound to become better. In other words, a more inclusive survey of our graduates cannot reduce this percentage. It is bound to make it better. Again, if this number is taken as representing the only group in agriculture of all of our students who were at the School only a day and upward it would represent close to 15 per cent. of the 874 students. In other words, at least one out of every six students who comes to our School stays in agriculture. Again this percentage must become better as we make a more inclusive study of those who did not stay to graduate. Every newly-found former student engaged in agriculture will augment this figure.

There is no justification from the data available to assume that because 73 per cent. of the graduates who are in contact with the School are in agriculture, that that would also represent the percentage in agriculture of those not in contact with the School. One of the reasons, no doubt, for failing to keep in contact with the School is the fact that some of these graduates are not in agriculture and do not feel at home at, or in need of corresponding with the School. On the other hand, it is equally fallacious to assume that all of those whom we failed to reach are back to city life. It is entirely probable that a percentage of our graduates who are not in contact with the School this summer are still in agriculture. That 39 per cent. are in agriculture must be regarded as the minimum. The correct percentage lies somewhere between 39 per cent. and 73 per cent.

The Board will recall that when several years ago I addressed a questionnaire to many of the leading agricultural educators and publicists in the country, asking what percentage of graduates of a school like ours should remain in agriculture in order to regard our work successful, Prof. Warren, of Cornell, replied that the School would be successful even if none followed it as a career. Prof. Bailey, Dean of Cornell, placed his estimate at 10 per cent. Dr. Butterfield, of the Massachusetts Agricultural College, gave the highest figure by stating that he would expect one-third of our graduates to be in agriculture. Our crudest figure is better than that.

The relatively high percentage of our graduates in agriculture is the more remarkable when it is considered that the survey was taken at a time when agriculture had reached almost its lowest ebb in public discussion as a remunerative occupation. At least the psychology, if not also the agricultural economic condition of the country was against our graduates for the past two years, luring them to the city.

As will be noted from Table 3, almost half of our graduates who replied are working in agriculture as farm assistants. They are still farm hands with their way to make. They are subject to the seasonal condition of labor. After the spring work and early summer harvest many of them are compelled to leave their job and find the next best thing. A late summer survey will see a large number of our graduates looking for new jobs and afterward accepting city jobs if nothing else is available. By and large then this remarkably fine showing, if anything, will be made better as the agricultural situation improves.

While congratulating ourselves on these results several other factors are worth noting. The percentage of those in agriculture continues to diminish as the classes become older. The 1923 class has 76 per cent. in agriculture, while the 1914 class has only 21 per cent. In other words, while practically all students start in, in an agricultural career, of those that drop out, it will be noted from Table 2, that eight gave agriculture a trial of less than a year. All the rest made a sincere effort to start in an agricultural career by staying in it one or more years. One was in agriculture nineteen years and then went into business. Obviously those dropping out did so reluctantly. The fact is that practical agriculture offers no career except as a farm owner and that if for any reason a student cannot accumulate funds for farm ownership, he finds no satisfactory career in agriculture. This again brings us to the problem of aiding graduates to farm ownership, if we find it desirable to test the efficacy of the school by the numbers successfully engaged in agriculture.

Those that are not following agriculture have all served an agricultural apprenticeship, 90 per cent. of them for more than one year. The subsequent career in the city, as will be seen from the list of occupations in Table 2, would be a credit to any school. They have become useful citizens. The list includes successful engineers, lawyers, manufacturers. The able head of Williamson Trade School, Dr. Pratt, once told a committee of Farm School Trustees that he regarded any man who started in the trade taught at Williamson and used it as a means to climb to a successful career no matter how remote from the original trade, as a credit to his institution. Using this criterion, all of our graduates at present in the city can be regarded as successful products of The National Farm School. Moreover, it would be erroneous to say that these men are definitely lost to agriculture. There is a constant shifting back of this potential agricultural material.

From Tables 3 and 4 it is worth noting the variety of agricultural callings which our graduates are following. The increasing number who have been successful as various rural leaders after additional collegiate training makes this phase increasingly important. Almost 15 per cent. of the graduates who replied are also agricultural college graduates, another large percentage are at present undergraduates in colleges. This group, and preparation for them deserve our serious thought.

The relatively large number who make their career in one way or other with cows and general agriculture, justifies the importance we place on those departments. We still need to develop the landscape, florist and fruit departments to meet the further needs of our students.

It has been difficult for me to reduce the life and product of our School to these tables and figures. There is a throb and thrill at the School, an inspiration and achievement of our graduates that does not lend itself to be described by an inductive inquiry. When one of our graduates, Walter Morris, 1922, for the present working in the city writes, "This spring I plowed for a farmer for nothing, just to get the feel of fresh, clean soil," we surely have not altogether lost this product of our School. Mitchell Brauman at present on a poultry farm in Toms River, N. J., adds, "The time is nigh when I shall conduct my own farm," and thus expresses the hopes that many express. A typical farm owner career is given by Samuel Miller, 1919: "Worked on several farms in different parts of the country. In the fall of 1921 I bought this farm. I just got married last February to a wonderful girl." A typical college career is described by Max Kesselman, 1917: "Worked as a florist and then entered Ohio State College, graduated in 1921, specializing in agricultural engineering. Went to Palestine in 1921, sent by the American Paoli Zion. In charge of machinery depot and technical department, building cow barns, milk rooms, creameries, bottling plants, poultry houses and other farm structures." Salem G. Fine, 1920, gives the following pregnant outline of his career: "1920—farm hand, 1921—farm renter, 1922—farm hand, 1923—sheet metal worker and plasterer."

Reuben Regelson, 1923, wrote: "We are losing money on peaches. May have to seek new job in October as employer may throw up sponge this fall." Arthur Levintow, 1916, after describing his medicinal florist plant gives his aspiration, "There seems to be a great field for any one who can increase the alkaloid contents of such plants as belladonna, cinchona, digitalis, etc." Max Fleisher, 1908, Superintendent of Inglewood Farms at Gordonville, Va., gives his career as follows: "Manager of animal husbandry at N. J. training school two years; 1st lieutenant, U. S. infantry; Supt. of Inglewood Farms since 1919."

These careers can be multiplied. Each one tells a story that has human qualities in it. Through it all may be read the sincere desire of city boys to seek the soil and a living in the open country. The product of a school cannot be exhibited as the product of a farm or factory, it cannot be regimented into figures and tables. Our School has created and maintained a spirit of American agriculture, as practiced on the family-sized farm, it has developed in its student a sincere desire to be productive and useful, to love the land, and has thus laid the foundation upon which we may build a larger contribution to the agricultural life of America.

FLOWER AND FRUIT FUND

Established in the Last Will and Message of Dr. Krauskopf

(Extract from Will)

"All moneys and investments remaining after the death of my wife, I desire turned over to the Board of Directors of The National Farm School, to be set aside by them as a special fund to be known as 'The Flower and Fruit Fund,' the interest of which is to be devoted to the distribution of flowers and fruits to the needy sick, irrespective of race, creed and color, if deemed advisable, for the purchase and setting aside of additional land by The National Farm School, as hereinafter suggested. The proper distribution of flowers and fruits shall be in charge of the Ladies' Auxiliary of The National Farm School and of the Sisterhood of Congregation Keneseth Israel.

"I sincerely hope that this fund may become the nucleus of a much larger one, that to it may be devoted sums which, at the present time, are invested in floral tributes, on coffins and graves, where they are of no benefit to the dead, and the living would be more lastingly comforted. The bereaved, I feel sure, will appreciate the affection and sentiment far better when learning of the contributions made to the Flower and Fruit Fund by friendly sympathizers, in commemoration of the dear departed. Instead of sending flowers for the coffin or grave, a card might be sent to the house of mourning, reading somewhat as follows:

"Sincere sympathy with .....
Contribution made to the Flower and Fruit Fund
In loving commemoration of.....
By .....

"I trust that the Flower and Fruit Fund may some day become large enough to make possible the purchase of additional land by the Farm School, and setting such land aside for the special benefit of the debilitated poor, for a week, or fortnight's, recreation by them during the summer, or by working said land by such of those who may have a chance to restore their lost health by outdoor work."

REPORT OF THE LADIES' BOARD

Mrs. Bernard Kohn, Chairwoman

Again a year has passed in the annals of The National Farm School; but this year it is with saddened hearts that we present our reports. Our leader—the one who was a constant source of inspiration, whose every hope was mingled with the development and well-being of the School, Dr. Joseph Kraukopf—is with us no more. It is useless to reiterate what we, as well as the whole community, have lost. Our duty is to "carry on."

We also record with saddened hearts the great loss we have sustained by the death of two of our most valuable members, whose charming personalities and wise counsel are sorely missed, Mrs. Minnie R. Hirsh, and Mrs. Ida Hirsh Silverman.

The School has been visited regularly by the Board members, and the household on the whole has been well conducted and well looked after. Unfortunately, last June, our matron, Miss Churchman, whose health had been failing, felt that the burden of the household was too great for her, and resigned. Too much cannot be said in praise of her faithful service and her ever kindly influence. It was with great regret we realized that her departure was inevitable.

Owing to a new person being in charge and the difficulty of getting additional help, not as much canning as usual was done during the summer. However, about 2,110 jars of fruits and vegetables were put up to add to our winter's supply.

The Ladies' Board is happy that the Director and his wife are at last established in their own home. Our hope is that within the near future the other members of the faculty will be similarly housed.

Under the reorganization plan for the Men's Board, the Ladies' Board has two representatives present at each monthly meeting of the former. We feel that this is an important forward step, as the Ladies' Board will thus become more conversant with the general affairs of the institution, and the Men's Board will be better informed concerning the conduct and problems of the household.

Again we wish to express our thanks and appreciation to the various Sisterhoods, sections of the Council of Jewish Women and the Ladies' Aid Societies, who, in the matter of linens and household articles, have so generously contributed to the needs of The National Farm School. A list of the organizations which assisted in the work follows, and we trust that their splendid efforts in behalf of the School will be continued.

THE NATIONAL FARM SCHOOL

Executive Office, 808 Denckla Building, Philadelphia.

Membership of The National Farm School

I, the undersigned, being in sympathy with the object of "The National Farm School"—the training of lads in the practice and science of agriculture, for agricultural callings—do hereby agree to subscribe as one of the Maintainers of the institution, the dues of a LIFE MEMBER ($100.00), PATRON ($25.00), SUPPORTER ($5.00), FRIEND ($50.00), MEMBER ($10.00).

Name .....

Address .....

Date .....

NOTE.—Underscore the class of membership you wish to join. Life Membership calls for but one (the first) payment. Make check payable to THE NATIONAL FARM SCHOOL.

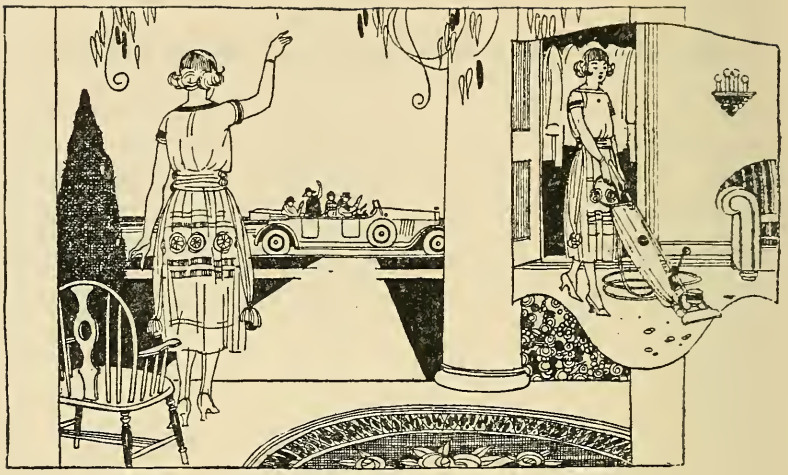
Form of Legacy to The National Farm School

"I give and bequeath unto The National Farm School, Bucks County, Pa., near Doylestown, the sum of.....dollars free from all taxes to be paid to the Treasurer, for the time being, for the use of the institution.'

Form of Devise

ON REAL ESTATE OR GROUND RENT

"I give and devise unto The National Farm School, Bucks County, Pa., near Doylestown (here describe the property or ground rent), together with the appurtenances, in fee simple, and all policies of insurance covering said premises, whether fire, title or otherwise, free from all taxes.



After Speeding the Departing Guest—What?

MUCH cleaning up to be done? Littered rooms to be cleaned—extra bed and table linen to be washed? Of course, even with the best of guests!

But if you have those three staunch household standbys—the electric cleaner, electric iron and electric washer—the aftermath of even a houseful of guests cannot cause any commotion. For with these things at your command, the rooms can soon be made bright and shining—the extra washing taken care of easily and expeditiously.

And even before the guests come, these three helpers will help make ready without fuss or worry and give you that calm, unflurried sense of hospitality toward your guests which stamps you as the ideal hostess.

Easy payments on the electric iron, cleaner and washer if desired

Noted Scientists

Approve of Gas Lighting

Scientific experiments by noted investigators prove that gas lighting improves the air for breathing purposes by helping ventilation, destroying germs and adding necessary moisture.

Scientists also know that modern gas light is best for the eyes, because it is so soft, mellow, free from glare and harmful color rays.

The Bureau of Standards, at Washington, refers in detail to the economy and quality of gas mantle light in a report entitled "Measurements for the Household."

See the display of modern gas lights at any of our Philadelphia Showrooms.
